

OCL Membership

August 1, 2012 – July 31, 2013

OCL membership is by parish (including its mission/s) rather than by person. Payment of annual dues establishes membership.

An annual fee of $25 per parish allows all persons in catechetical ministry to attend OCL meetings and workshops throughout the year.

*Other fees may apply for presentations and/or workshops given by a national speaker.

2012-2013 OCL Officers

President the Rev. Mr. John McCourt, deacon of Holy Rosary Parish in Hostyn and Sts. Peter & Paul in Plum

Vice-President Doris Anadel, parish catechetical leader of St. Agnes Parish in Edna

Secretary Laurie Bautista, parish catechetical leader of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish in Victoria

Treasurer Dana Daughtry, parish catechetical leader of St. John the Baptist Parish in St. John

2012-2013 Organization of Catechetical Leadership

The Organization of Catechetical Leadership (OCL) is an association that deals collectively with the professional and spiritual needs of those in catechetical ministry (clergy, parish catechetical leaders [DRE/CREs], catechists, youth ministers, adult faith formation ministers, RCIA team members, and the assistants who help in these ministries) in the Diocese of Victoria.

- ◆ OCL offers workshops by local and national presenters on pertinent topics, which reflect the Church's teachings while exploring new catechetical models for today's Catholics.
- ◆ OCL provides opportunities for parish catechetical leaders to share their experiences and to build community among peers.
- ◆ OCL supports parish catechetical leaders in the Church's mission of evangelization and catechesis.
- ◆ OCL is in affiliation with the Office of Catechetical Ministry
